

1. Nan and Noelle each collected erasers. The ratio of Nan's collection to Noelle's collections was $5 : 9$. Altogether they had 154 erasers. How many erasers did Noelle have?

2. Trudi and Tracey had large collections of books. The ratio of their collections was $7 : 4$. Trudi had 21 more books than Tracey. How many did each girl have?

3. Carl and Craig were shooting baskets. Carl was the more successful shooter and the ratio of their successful shots was $11:8$. If Carl made 15 more baskets than Craig, how many baskets did they make altogether?

4. MVMS had a drive to collect money for a local charity. Sixth, seventh, and eighth grades all took part. The ratio of the contributions was $8:7:5$. Sixth graders rock!!! What percentage of the total dollars were from the sixth grade?